Olsen twins to visit MGM theme park

Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen, the 8-year-old twins who share the role of Michelle Tanner on the ABC TV show "Full House," will visit MGM Grand Adventures July 25 to debut their new detective video series, "The Adventures of Mary-Kate & Ashley." The event is open free to the public.

The twins will meet with their fans in the theme park's Rio Grande Cantina from 6 to 8 p.m.

The sisters will be in Las Vegas to announce a multimedia deal with Bertelsman Music Group and their own Dualstar Entertainment Group at the city's annual Video Software Dealers' Assn. convention.

The duo's first album, "Brother For Sale," debuted in October, 1992. Their second album, "I Am the Cute One," was released in late September, 1993, along with "Mary-Kate and Ashley Olsen: Our First Video," which went to No. 1 on Billboard's music video chart in less than three weeks after its release. The video held the No. 1 spot for three months.
